

San Francisco Food Tours

FERRY BUILDING FOOD TOUR AND ALCATRAZ EXCURSION

Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays, Sundays
Ferry Building Tour: 10am - 11am
Alcatraz: Afternoon departure / Last return changes seasonally
$154 per person (includes $39.90 face value Alcatraz ticket + $2 booking fee)

Two entertaining and engaging historical landmarks bring you the ultimate, day-long San Francisco excursion exploring land, sea, food, and history. You'll begin with a one-hour tasting tour of the best of the Ferry Building Marketplace, where a knowledgeable guide/food industry professional leads you on a historic, food-filled journey of the building's local, artisan cuisine and food purveyors. After a brief break, you'll then voyage by ferry to one of the city's most popular attractions, Alcatraz Island, for a self-guided tour of the beautiful island and its history-packed maximum-security prison that has drawn San Francisco Bay Area tourists for decades.

JAPANTOWN TOUR

Fridays and Saturdays, 11am - 2pm
$114 per person (+ $2 booking fee)

San Francisco is home to one of only three remaining Japantowns in the United States, and our guides, some of them born in the neighborhood and residents for decades, take total pleasure in showing it off to locals and visitors alike. Tastes may include sweet potato lattes from YakiniQ Café; onigiri (rice balls); takoyaki (Japanese street food) from Yama-Chan; sweet and savory mochi from one of Japantown's first businesses, Benkyodo Confections; and authentic Masala dosa with chutney from DOSA on Fillmore. After the tour, you'll be the expert on where to find the best bites in the neighborhood.
